

MINIMIZING COVID-19 EXPOSURE

and social distancing in veterinary practice

Questions regarding delaying vaccines for rabies should be addressed with local authorities. Consultation with state and local health officials is strongly encouraged so that timely and accurate information can guide appropriate responses in each location.