The governor will be issuing the order tomorrow, and more information will be available tomorrow as we work with our public health experts, businesses large and small, and local communities to protect as many people as we can. Again, more information will be available tomorrow. Today's announcement is intended to give people the opportunity to plan and prepare while reminding people that everyone is safer at home.

Additionally, here are other actions taken this weekend.

Protecting the health and safety of Wisconsinites across our state is the Governor's top priority. As we work with public health experts to respond to the health crisis, we have been careful to listen to the science and be mindful of the impact our protective measures will have for EVERYONE.

We are extremely grateful to everyone. #StayHome because it's #SaferAtHome for you, your family, your neighbors and our communities.
